LETTERING TERMINOLOGY

Ascender Line: The line where the top-most part of your ascenders rest.

X-Height: Roughly the middle of your letters. Most lowercase letters will be this height.

Baseline: The line where your letters rest. With the exception of descenders, this is the line where the bottom-most portion of your letter will sit.

Ascenders: Letters with strokes that extend past the x-height to the ascender line.

Descenders: Letters with strokes that extend past the baseline.

Cross Bar: Thin horizontal stroke that intersects a letter.

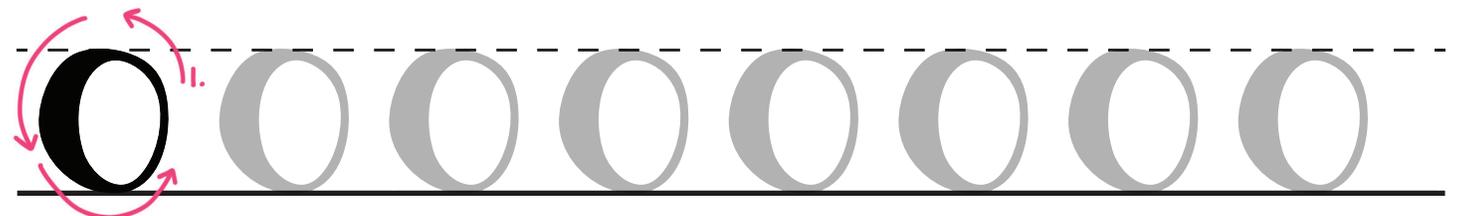

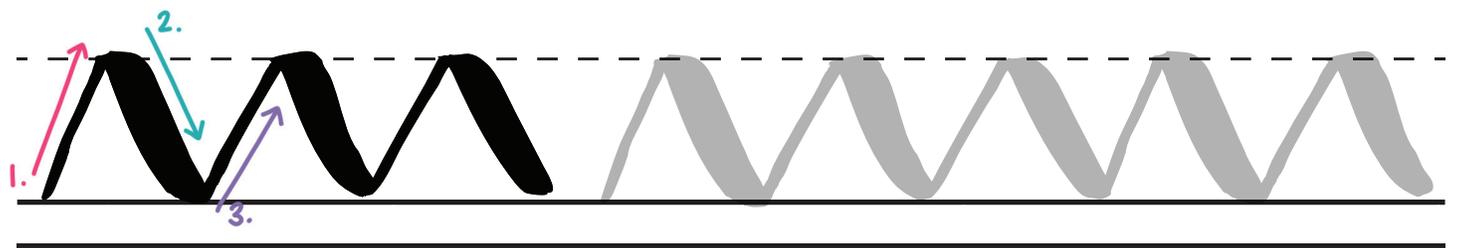

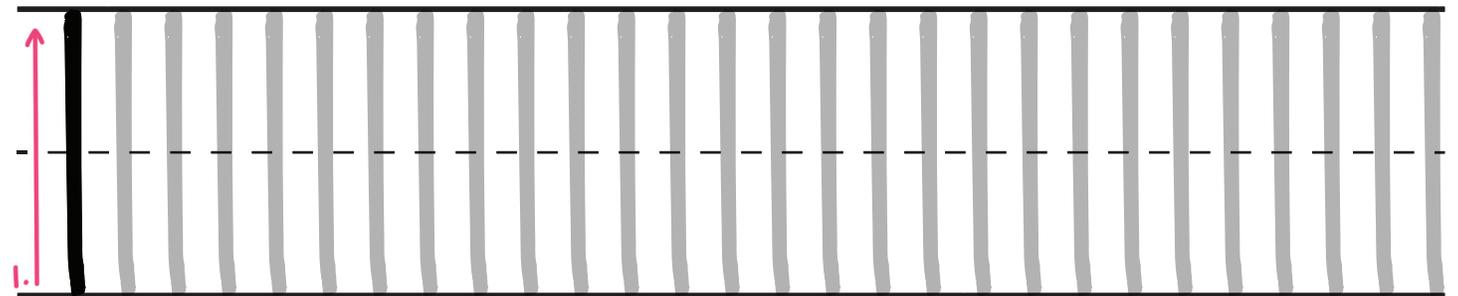

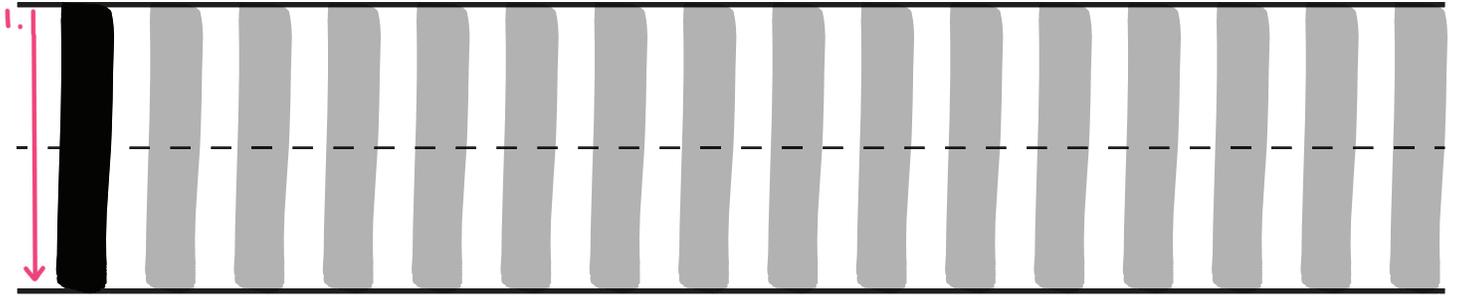

Bowl: Closed-off, curved part of a letter.

Flourish: An exaggerated swash added to a letter's tail, cross bar, entry stroke or exit stroke.

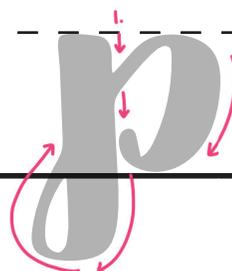

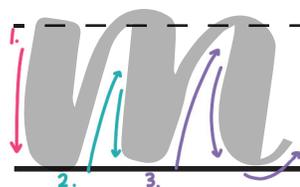

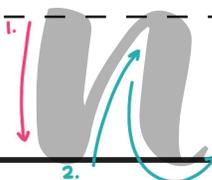

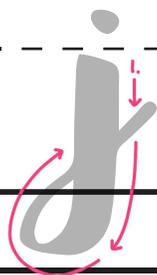

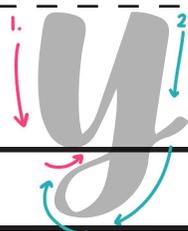

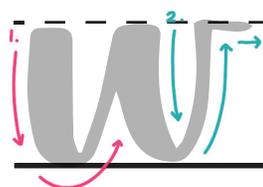

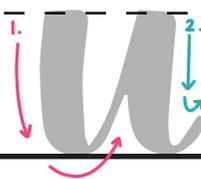

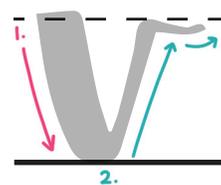

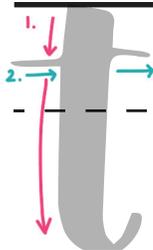

Upstroke: The part of the letter made by your hand moving up the page. This stroke should always be thin in brush lettering.

Downstroke: The part of the letter made by your hand moving down the page. This stroke should always be thick in brush lettering.
